ABSTRACT

Rikal Rahmil. 2016. Developing students' ability in writing poems by using the technique of grouping words by using pictorial media in grade V of SDN 10, Patamuan, Padang Pariaman.

This research was based on the difficulty experienced by the fifth graders of SDN 10 Patamuan Padang Pariaman in writing poems. Thus, the study is aimed at developing the students' ability in writing poems by using the technique of words grouping.

This is a class action research which applied both the quantitative and qualitative approaches. The research was conducted from April 19, 2016 to April 30, 2016. The research was conducted in SDN Patamuan Padang Pariaman with 31 fifth graders as the subjects of the study. The research data was obtained through observation and tests. The effectiveness of every action in each cycle was described and then evaluated in order to implement better action in the next cycle.

The research finding shows that the implementation of the technique of grouping words by using pictorial media has resulted in developing the students' ability in writing poems. The aspects that were scrutinized in this study were the students' ability in relating the content of the poem with the theme, diction and rhymes. It was found that the development of the students' ability in relating the content of their poems with the theme improved from the average score of 71, 77% in cycle one to 86, 28% in cycle two. This means that there was improvement of approximately 14.51%. It was also found that the investigation on the diction aspect also shows progress where the average score of 51, 20 % in cycle one became 85,48% in cycle two. This means there is a progress of approximately 34, 28%. The analysis on the rhyme reveals that there is an increase from approximately 69, 35% in cycle one to 84,67% in cycle two. This means that there is a progress of 15, 32%. Based on these findings it can be concluded that the technique of grouping the words can be used as an alternative to develop the students' ability in writing poems in the Bahasa Indonesia lesson.
